

NATIONAL JALMA INSTITUTE FOR LEPROSY & OTHER MYCOBACTERIAL DISEASES

Academic Schedule for the Institute

The following training programmes for the Graduate, Post Graduate or Research Students in various fields of Modern Biological and Biotechnological techniques. Complete application (enclosures: Attested photocopies of all the documents including Mark-sheets, Cast certificate etc.) for the training desired must forwarded through the parent Head of Department / Principal of the Institute/college/University.

Summer Training: During this short training orientation and exposure will be given through lectures and demonstrations by scientists of the Institute in various advance techniques in the field of advance biological sciences.

Project/ Dissertation / short term training: During this type of training students have to work on a project or define technique (depending upon period) under supervision of

Course / Training	Duration	Schedule	Last Date for application	Selection criteria	Fees
Summer Training	15 days	May and June	30th March	Academic Record	Rs. 500
Short term Training	2 months Maximum	July - Nov	Remain open	Academic Record	Rs.1000
Dissertation / Project work	6 months Maximum	Jan-June or as per University Schedule if suitable for Institute	30th Oct	Academic Record, written test and interview	Rs. 2000
Dissertation / Project work	One Year	As per University Schedule if suitable for Institute	30th March for project from July	Academic Record, written test and interview	Rs. 4000 concern scientists.

- Common application form for all the training programmes can be downloaded from our website (Download forms).
- Results will be available on our website only.